Nevada Auto Crash Kills L.G. Couple

Dual funeral services will be held Friday for a Lemon Grove couple who died late Sunday in Nevada in an auto accident when an oncoming car swerved across the center dividing line and struck them head-on.

Dead were Louis C. Montag, 61, a civilian worker at North Island Naval Air Station and his wife Clare, 60. The couple lived at 3530 Sweetwater Rd., near Broadway.

Severely injured in the crash with the Montags were Murlin Foerster, 50, a Rohr employee, and his wife Marie, 63. They lived at 3528 Sweetwater in the same duplex with the Montags. Mrs. Montag and Mrs. Foerster were sisters.

Nevada Highway Patrol officers said a car driven by L. Mullins, 41, of Carson City, with a woman identified only as Lois Bargman as a passenger, swerved across the dividing line and struck the Montag car head-on.

The crash occurred near Searchlight and the auto burst into flames after the collision. A passing motorist pulled the two Lemon Grove couples from the wreckage but the Montags were dead at the scene. Mullins and his passenger were also injured. All were taken to the Boulder City hospital.

A friend of the Montags and Foersters said the couples were planning to retire in a year or two and were looking over possible retirement sites in the desert area.

Montag had lived in the Lemon Grove area for 15 years and was a member of Lemon Grove Masonic Lodge No. 736 F&AM; the Scottish Rite Bodies, and the Al Bahr Shrine.

Dual services will be held for the couple at the L. G. Masonic Temple with Masonic services being conducted for the husband at 2 p.m.

Firefighters Needed In LG

Ever dream of being a firefighter?

Then there's a chance for you in Lemon Grove.

Fire Captain Harry Alexander said this week that call men are needed to keep the cadre full.

Call men are trainees — but they're paid to learn.

They are paid $2 an hour for training and for fighting fires. Average employment for call men is ten hours a month.

Applicants must be 18 years of age and live within the Lemon Grove Fire District, Captain Alexander said.

After the trainee reaches 21 he is eligible to become a full-fledged member of the Fire Department when an opening occurs.

Captain Alexander may be reached at the L. G. Fire Station, 7853 Central Ave. any time.

Contest Participants To Be Rotary Guests

Several boys of local junior high and elementary schools, who participated in last Saturday's "punt, pass and kick" football competition, sponsored by Spring Valley Rotary Club and Spear's Ford of Lemon Grove, will be guests at the Friday luncheon-meeting of S. V. Rotary. Jim Smith, vice-president, said possibly there will be a speaker from Spear's Ford. The meeting will be held in Henry Langhorst Restaurant, just east of Jamacha and Sweetwater Blvds., at 12 noon.

PSA Said Beneficiary Of Underassessment

SAN DIEGO (CNA) — County Assessor John McQuilken has been asked by the Board of Supervisors to appear before it to explain how Pacific Southwest Airlines was apparently able to escape about $81,000 in taxes for the years 1963 and 1964.

The PSA figures were revealed Friday at a hearing of the State Assembly Committee on Municipal and County Government and this meeting was referred to by the supervisors.

A company official did not deny that there had been an underassessment but said that the company had given the correct figures for its aircraft to the assessor's office. A tax consultant later apparently got the assessment and thus the tax reduced or so his tax service bill to the company for the two years state. The saving was shown as an "equalized assessment."

There was no explanation at the state hearing of how this change was accomplished or how it was approved in the local assessor's office, if it was.

The County Grand Jury has for some weeks, with the aid of District Attorney Don Keller, been investigating McQuilken's office.

In another action, the board made a letter from Supervisor Henry A. Boney concerning the situation an official statement of the board. The letter requests McQuilken, Keller, County Counsel Bertram McLees and Chief Administrative Officer T. M. Hegland to cooperate as much as possible in recovering any tax money that has been lost. Boney gave the PSA case as a good indication that money has been lost.

He said that he realizes that the district attorney might find it necessary to hold certain information in confidence if it has a bearing on possible crime aspects of the case.

Grossmont College's campus expansion program was passed at a district-wide election Tuesday.

Unofficially, the results were

UCS CAMPAIGN — Employees of La Mesa-Spring Valley School District are conducting their annual campaign for United Community Services this week with emphasis on a higher level of giving. Representatives from the various schools in the district met at the administration center in La Mesa last week-end to pick up campaign materials and receive final orientation. Pictured are four representatives who serve as key operatives in their respective schools. They are (l-r) Paul Radenheimer, school district campaign chairman and Bancroft Elementary School principal; Jan Davis, Brier Patch Elementary; Pat Schrieffer, Bancroft Elementary; and Alan Moody, La Mesa Dale Elementary.

Burglary Strikes Casa de Oro Area

A series of 10 burglaries in the Casa de Oro area was reported to sheriff's officers last week.

They all occurred the night of Oct. 12 after businesses were closed.

The biggest haul was from Frederick's Hair Fashions, 9723 Campo Rd., where $540 worth of wigs and hairpieces were taken.

$73 from the cash register was stolen from the Roadside Bar-B-Q, 9726 Campo, $40 taken from the cash register at La Casita de Oro Cafeteria, 9748 Campo and $37 was stolen from the Master Cleaners cash register, 9723 Campo.

Breaking and entering was reported at Casa Interiors, 9760 Campo; Mina Ray Real Estate, 9725 Campo; and Casa de Oro Shoe Repair, 9732 1/2 Campo.

Grove Girl Picked Up

A nine-year-old Lemon Grove girl was enticed into a car by a man who called himself "Johnny" Monday evening at San Miguel and Massachusetts, L. G.

The girl was walking south on Massachusetts with her seven-year-old brother when a car pulled up alongside and stopped. The suspect, whom the girl described as "an older man with gray hair having dark streaks," told her in a menacing voice to "get into the car." He drove the car approximately a quarter of a mile before turning around and proceeding towards San Miguel School.

The suspect released the girl in front of the school and warned her about being careful of cars.

Auto Battery Thefts

A group of auto battery thefts has been reported in the past week. Oct. 16, the Owl Construction Co. of San Diego told officers that a 12-volt battery was taken from one of their company cars at 2023 Washington, L. G. The same date, John T. McLain of San Diego reported a 12-volt battery being taken from his vehicle, which was parked at 8108 Darryl Ave., L. G.

The afternoon of Oct. 18, someone took a new battery and a new tire from the camper of F. L. Andregg, 7558 Skyline Dr., S. D. His camper was parked in the Spring Valley Shopping Center. Oct. 17, an attempt was made to take a battery from a car parked at 8131 Longdale, L. G., but it failed when someone apparently surprised the suspects. The of Architects has been to approve plans already drawn for speech and drama facilities. It is possible that bids may be called for these improvements in January, said Harold Hughes Junior College District Superintendent.

Plans were drawn by Clyde Hubbauer, district architect. Also catalogued for construction are additional classrooms, laboratories and physical education facilities.

Heaviest support came from the Santee area where 79 per cent of the voters said "yes."

In Lemon Grove the results for 7 precincts were 1,458 yes; 798 no. Percentage is 64.6.

In Spring Valley voters in its 8 precincts gave 1,358 yes; 629 no for a percentage of 69.4.

In smaller areas, such as Jamul, the issue failed, however. The two-year college presently has an enrollment of 3,300 which is about 800 over its designed capacity. Added facilities covered by the bond issue will bring the capacity to 4,000-5,000.

Most of the science-technology, liberal arts-business and physical education facility construction will probably begin next fall and occupancy is expected by September, 1967, according to Hughes.

Foster Parents Needed In Area

There is an urgent need for foster parents in the San Diego County area according to Beverly Rumbaugh, senior probation officer for the county probation department.

Miss Rumbaugh, in addressing the Lemon Grove Men's Club Friday, said the primary need was in the 10-18 age group, infants and family groups.

"Any average healthy and happy family is eligible to take in foster children and a license is not required for taking in children over 16," Miss Rumbaugh added.

Along with her talk, she presented a film, "Homeless Child," which brought out the problems concerning the foster child.

She added, "Over half the children referred to our department are not correctional problems. They are just victims of broken homes, family deaths, unwanting parents, etc."

She expressed a wish for anyone in the Lemon Grove-Spring Valley area desiring to take in a foster child, to contact her at the county probation department, BE 3-8011.

This Friday's special speaker for the Men's Club meeting at 12 noon at Michael's Restaurant, will be Eleanor Anderson, mayor of Chula Vista.

Broadway Owners Decide Against Land Transfer

Broadway property owners will not be transferring frontage land to the County of San Diego.

The decision came about Friday at a meeting of the Broadway land owners in Lemon Grove at Michael's Restaurant.

Charles Kerch, spokesman for the group, said "Plans have been dropped for the transfer of the easements. Instead, the street cleaning will be handled by the individual owners themselves."

Decency Petitions Circulated Here

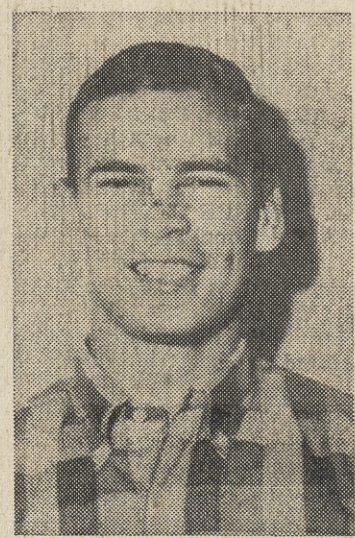

Petitions calling for an amendment to the State Constitution giving local authorities more power to institute stronger decency laws may be signed in Lemon Grove.

The petitions are at the office of A. E. "Bob" Howell, 3435 Imperial Ave., near Broadway.

Petition circulators will attempt to get 50,000 signatures in San Diego County. Approximately 500,000 signatures are needed on a statewide basis.

PAT HILL

JON MINICH

TAMARA MANSFIELD

Three Mount Miguel Graduates To Travel Around The World

Three Mount Miguel High School graduates yesterday embarked on a four-months cruise around the world.

The trio, 1965 grads Pat Hill and Jon Minich and 1964 alum Tamara Mansfield, left New York City aboard the M. S. Seven Seas of the Holland-America Line.

The University of Seven Seas, a division of Chapman College in Orange, Calif., chartered the ship for the cruise.

During the next four months, Pat, Jon and Tam will travel to Portugal, Spain, France, Italy, Greece, Turkey, India, Malaysia, The Philippines, Hong Kong, Japan, and Hawaii.

The trip is a combined semester of college and travel tour. The University of Seven Seas is an accredited institution and all three youths will apply credits earned towards their college education.

Started In 1962
It all started back in 1962 when John, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ward H. Minich of 1140 Elkton Blvd., Spring Valley, was a sophomore.

"I first heard about it from several of the older students around school. Right away, I became interested," Jon said.

Then last spring, Jon contacted the dean of admissions, former Mount Miguel english teacher Don Amundson, at USS and applied for a $1500 scholarship, which he ultimately received.

Jon also learned that several more scholarships were available for this area so he told Pat and Tam about it and they applied and received the grants.

Since then, it has been a matter of raising enough money to cover the expenses, which will run to about $1500 per student. The scholarship pays two-thirds of the tuition and board.

Visit Friends
While on the tour, the three students will visit with friends abroad.

Former Mt. Miguel grads Gail Perritt, Carolyn Brandt, Lois Claussen and a Devon Foster are among the foreign exchange students, whom the trio will visit with.

They are scheduled to see Ng Lee-Ngo, Miguel's 1964 exchange student.

While on board, they will study for six days a week. In port, they will be free of classes but will have organized tours which they will have to make reports on. The port and aboard ship times come out just about even, according to Jon, who has made a thorough study of the time he will have to test those sea legs on land.

Pat, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert N. Hill of 2314 Edgerton Dr., Lemon Grove, laughingly points out that it will be real easy to gain weight while on the ship.

Five Meals
"They serve five meals a day. Three regular meals and a 3 p.m. tea along with a 10 p.m."

'Crazy Days' Is A Success

Bob Mastny, merchant's division chairman of the Lemon Grove Chamber of Commerce, wishes to thank all merchants who participated in last week-end's successful "Crazy Days."

"I would also like to commend the Lemon Grove Women's Club for its fine display," he added.

The men who represented "Mr. Sidewalk" during the promotion were Wes Eli, Hank Evans, Tony Sonka, Ray Allen, Ron Steele and Al Woods.

snack. Those are just the scheduled meals," relates Pat.

Tam, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Mansfield of 3243 Par Dr., La Mesa, feels the trip will "broaden my point of view and perspective."

Pat agrees and adds, "It will help me understand how the rest of the world lives. In this day and age, you almost have to cope with the world situation."

Jon echoes the girls statement.

Except for the fact that they won't be home for the holidays and the seemingly endless array of shots before leaving the U. S., it has and will be an exciting adventure.

That it should be.

Hope For The Jobless

There's a new program underway here that should help the employment situation considerably.

For the first time, as near as we can recall, the federal government is handing some of it back to business and professional firms—from whence the money comes in the first instance.

It's being done through the San Diego Mayor's Committee for Jobs, Inc. and we mention it in this column because it should give hope to those in this area who have had trouble finding work. Here's how employers make use of it:

The Federally activated Manpower Development Training Act (MDTA) provides the authority and funds for on-the-job training (OJT).

Supervisor and prime contractor for MDTA is San Diego Mayor's Committee for Jobs, Inc. (SDMCJI). Bureau of Apprenticeship and Training (BAT) acts in advisory capacity; signs contracts and authorized participation.

On-The-Job-Training (OJT) director of the project and his staff process job opportunities and handle the paperwork.

The job-seeker applies for work as an on-the-job trainee. He works for any wage scale he can negotiate at or above the minimum.

The employer puts him to work as he would any employee. MDTA through OJT, via SDMCJI meanwhile, has agreed to pay the employer for training this guy. The average pay to the employer is a little under $25 a week. He may do whatever he wants with this dough because he's earned it through teaching. He has agreed to train the employee an hour a day so he's earning $5 an hour for the training effort.

The on-the-job trainee may take as long as six months to become proficient. He and his employer may decide when this stage is reached. It is hoped that the employee will be kept on but he faces the same fate as any employee at the end of training—either he cuts it or he doesn't. In the latter case he is released.

What's interesting about this program is that it does not bind the employer. He can separate from the trainee anytime for cause. The employer has no red tape involvement. The government does not operate a watchdog department to harrass the business man. The employer may choose whomever he wants to employ. The only qualification is that the trainee be taken from the ranks of the unemployed with a field new to him.

For those desperate for a job, and for those employers needing a worker who he can now afford with $25 a week of the cost being supplied by MDTA, we urge that this plan be utilized.

Workers should contact Miss Peabody at the On-The-Job Training department at the State Department of Employment. Professional and business people should contact Fred Rathmann at the Mayor's Committee for Jobs, Inc. by calling him at 233-6218.

This newspaper became the first firm in the county to make use of this service.

As a personal note it should be said that the employee, a husband and father, had reached the last dollar of his resources and was desperate when he applied here. He is now learning a trade and earns $25 a week more than the minimum.

As opposed as we are to government handouts we can't help but feel that this one is worth while.

What's Buzzin' Cousin?

The "in" party has many advantages.

Although the spoils system is supposedly a part of the past, it doesn't take deep research to bring voters face to face with some interesting facts.

The presidential prerogative is varied. In the nepotism department, the Hearst Headline Service comes up with these tidbits of information regarding relatives on the public payroll department:

Patsy Derby, an LBJ cousin, is a White House secretary, frequently accompanying Luci on trips.

Diane MacArthur, a niece of LBJ, was appointed to head up a division of the Peace Corps three months ago. She first had her name on the payroll when LBJ was Vice President.

Birge D. Alexander, brother-in-law of LBJ, has just been named to head up a new southwest area office of the Federal Aviation Agency.

Antonio J. Taylor, a cousin, operator of an import handicraft store in Santa Fe, N. M., recently completed a four-week mission to Latin America as a $75-a-day foreign aid consultant.

No relatives, but good cronies, Abe Fortas was named to the Supreme Court, and Texas Attorney, Leonard Marks was named to head the U. S. Information Service.

Church To Present Drug Addiction Film

"The Devils Pit" will be shown Sunday at 6 and 7 p.m. at the Spring Valley Gospel Tabernacle at 3315 Jamacha Rd. Spring Valley.

"The Devils Pit" according to gospel tabernacle pastor Don Tinsley is a documentary film on the growing evils of delinquency and drug addiction among teenage gangs. It was produced with actual gang members and shows in full color and sound teen-agers getting "high" on narcotics just for a thrill. This film introduces a new dimension of hope in the treatment and cure of adolescent narcotics.

There to show the film and speak will be Rev. Don Hall, director and founder of TEEN CHALLENGE in Southern California. TEEN CHALLENGE is a youth program organized to help gang members, drug addicts, and meet the spiritual needs of all young people in metropolitan cities across the United States. One of its chief aims is to rehabilitate youngsters who have been in trouble with the law as a means of preventing the spread of juvenile delinquency. To do this TEEN CHALLENGE operates ten centers, including one in Los Angeles located at 2263 S. Hobart Blvd. Here young people may live and work in order to learn how to live decent lives. TEEN CHALLENGE has received national acclaim for its work and has been featured in such magazines as LIFE, TIME and GOOD HOUSEKEEPING.

The public is cordially invited to attend this special service.

Austin Guild To Meet Monday At High School

The regular meeting of the Austin Guild of St. Augustine High School will be held Monday evening at 8. It will be held in the school gymnasium which is located at the corner of Bancroft and Palm Streets in San Diego. Mrs. Richard Shea, president will preside.

The social hour will follow. Refreshments will be served by mothers of the following parishes: Mrs. Thomas Finnegan, chairman, St. John of the Cross, Lemon Grove; Mrs. Peter Glotta, chairman, Our Lady of Grace, Fletcher Hills and Mrs. John O'Hea, chairman, Santa Sophia, Casa de Oro.

Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic, was the first permanent settlement in the new world. Bartholomew Columbus brother of Christopher, settled the area in 1496.

Film To Be Seen At EUB Church

Men's Day was observed last Sunday morning at the Warner Memorial Evangelical United Brethren Church, 9400 Campo Rd., with the men's organization having charge of the program.

Glenn Munyon, California president of the E. U. B. Men and a member of Warner Memorial, spoke on "Gifts—Practical or Ornamental." Charles Hart, president of the local group was Chairman of the Day.

A special Denominational Day of Prayer services was held in the evening with the women's society in charge.

This Sunday at 11 a.m., the pastor, Rev. Robert Hempy, will bring a message on "An Unspoken Language." In the evening at 7 p.m., the fall stewardship program will be launched by the showing of the film "The Tenders."

THE REV. DON HALL

Church Women To Hear Panel On United Nations Nov. 5

Good news for some of the 100,000 victims of the disastrous earthquake of last March in Chile! The women of the Home-land Council of Church Women have been preparing sewing kits, clothing, and dress materials to be sent to that country so that the native women may be trained to better their families.

The offerings will be made at the local observance of World Community Day, which will be held at the Lemon Grove Methodist Church, Washington and Golden Sts., at 10 a.m., Friday Nov. 5. Women of many churches of the area will take part.

The speakers will be Rev. Edward Garner of Santee Methodist Church, and Mrs. Mary Fay, who will speak on the specialized services of the United Nations.

Mrs. Fay and Rev. Garner will sit as a panel of two to discuss "Relations of Christianity" and the "United Nations," the "Issues Which Concern the United Nations," and an "Analysis of the Attacks on the United Nations."

A luncheon will follow the meeting, to which all are invited. Reservations may be made with Mrs. Mary Gilson, 469-5277.

Child care will be provided.

Theonetics Symposiums Set For Church Leaders

Ministers and key lay leaders from United Presbyterian churches throughout the Southland will join with top spokesmen of science and industry next Monday and Tuesday, Oct. 25-26, in the first of three "theonetics" ("theos"—god, plus "cybernetics") symposiums designed to help churchmen become more familiar with and more aware of the changing scene.

The conferences, according to one of the sponsors, are planned in an effort "to foster mutual understanding about an amazing future which poses a threat to man's capacity to remain human amidst today's march of progress."

Briefings by key spokesmen of the scientific and industrial community will be followed by discussion periods, with the expected outcome of the interchange a more informed church leadership and a broader approach to meeting men's needs.

The first two-day session will be held at Lafayette Hotel, Long Beach. The second session will be held Nov. 1 at Union Oil Center in Los Angeles, and the third session will be held Nov. 15-16 at Lafayette Hotel.

The Navajo Indian reservation covers 25,000 square miles in Arizona, New Mexico and Utah.

Long-Time Civic Leader Elected To Head Welfare

Mrs. Robert (Rosarie) Graham of Central Ave., Spring Valley, long time civic leader, was elected president of the Spring Valley Community Welfare Inc., at the group's Tuesday meeting.

Other officers elected were: First vice-president, Lillian Duncan; 2nd vice-president, Thelma Puterbaugh; 3rd vice-president, Agnes Watkins; 4th vice-president, Margaret Malcom; 5th vice-president, Eva Mails; recording secretary, Odessa Collins; correspondence secretary, Louise Caldwell; treasurer, Doris Howell; parliamentarian, Thelma Lewis; and junior past-president (outgoing president) Harriet Allen.

The officers were elected as presented on the slate.

Mrs. Graham reported on the Oct. 7-8 rummage sale held in the Casa de Oro area. Treasurer Mrs. Puterbaugh said a gross of $128.46 was realized. And it was reported that there are good bargains to be had at both the Thrift Shops; the proceeds to help needy families in the area.

There were two special reports at the meetings: Mrs. William Subber, vice-president of the San Diego Chapter of Calif. Diabetic Ass'n., said the association is attempting to set up 50 diabetes detection centers in the county by the middle of November. She said already there are plans for three centers in this area: at Santa Sophia Catholic Church, Nov. 20, from 1 to 9 p.m.; Spring Valley Junior High School, Nov. 14, from 2 to 6 p.m.; and Lemon Grove Junior High School, Nov. 14, from 2 to 6 p.m.

Mrs. Subber asked that people volunteer their services at the centers, as 20 persons will be needed to man the various posts. There will be professional medical people at the stations. This will be free to the public, and those who may have the disease will be given examinations, Mrs. Subber said. Examinations will be held in the future on a yearly basis.

The other report was from Mrs. Diann Klostermier, president of the Brookside Mothers Committee. She asked for backers in Brookside's fight to have the "contaminated" ditch problem solved. This has been a problem for many years to the people of Brookside. Mrs. Klostermier said the county was asked to make tests on the ditch several months ago, but replied that the cost would be too great. She said that Supervisor Henry Boney recently said he had arranged to have several engineers make a study of the situation, and that the preliminary study should be sometime in January.

The annual canned goods-food drive at Spring Valley schools is scheduled for Nov. 18-19, it was reported. Students will bring their goods to the schools and then be turned over to the Welfare, for distribution to needy families. It was reported that distribution of Thanksgiving baskets will be on Nov. 24. Next regular meeting of the S. V. C. W. L. will be Dec. 7. At that time the new officers will be installed.

MRS. ROBERT GRAHAM

Re-apportionment To Be Topic Of LOWV Meeting

The League of Women Voters of Grossmont-Cajon Valley will meet Oct. 26 through 28 for further discussion on re-apportionment of the California Senate and Assembly.

The meetings will be consensus meetings and some of the questions to be answered will be: "What should the constitution say about apportionment? What should be in statutes? What constitutes desirable apportionment for California? What are the factors on which it should be based and how often? Who should be responsible?"

The public is invited to attend these meetings.

Hostesses in their respective homes will be: Oct. 26 at 9:30 a.m., Mrs. Gail Fiske, 6270 Cresthaven Dr., La Mesa; Oct. 27 at 9:30 a.m., Mrs. Ruth Collins, 4628 Calavo Dr., La Mesa; Oct. 27 at 7:30 p.m., Mrs. Pat Johnston, Cajon Valley Junior High Library; Oct. 28 at 9:30 a.m., Mrs. Dorothy Dixon, 1321 Peerless Dr., El Cajon; Oct. 28 at 1 p.m., Mrs. Lorrie Lever, 858 Oro, El Cajon.

Laundry Caper Snags Sheets

SAN DIEGO (CNA) — A Spring Valley man charged with six counts of burglary was scheduled to go on trial in Superior Court today.

He is Charles Sheets, 42, of 809 Sweetwater Rd., who was arrested in July by La Mesa police following a stake-out of the Maytag Laundry, 8876 La Mesa Blvd., La Mesa.

Police said the self-service laundry had been hit by a coin burglar six times in three weeks. Police placed marked coins in the machine and arranged a stake-out.

Sheets was arrested when he left the laundry, after being observed at the machine. Officer Jonas Humphrey said he searched Sheets and found $8.87 in coins, including some of the marked ones. Police also said they found a wire believed to have been used to pick up the coin machine mechanism.

'Bugging' Trial Off To November

SAN DIEGO (CNA) — The "bugging" trial of a Lemon Grove private detective and a San Ysidro private detective and his wife, slated to start Monday in Superior Court, has been postponed until Nov. 29.

Edwin Meech, 30, of 3434 Grove St., Lemon Grove, Vernon Ford Hyatt, 40, and his wife, Dixie, 35, of San Ysidro, are accused of bugging a motel room of the Chula Vista Motel, 394 Broadway.

The trial was postponed due to the inavailability of a witness.

The detectives and Mrs. Hyatt were arrested May 19 after a San Jose attorney, Harry Feldman, found a microphone in his motel room while conferring with his clients, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Sloan, of San Diego, and James Nelson, of Chula Vista.

Southwest Corner

The famed gun fight at La O. K. Corral in Tombstone, Ariz., and the battle in which Commodore Perry Owens shot it out with members of the Coope-Blevans gang in Holbrook, Ariz., are usually called the bloodiest gun fights in the history of the West. But it seems that this dubious honor should go to a gun battle fought in the little town of Campo about 45 miles east of here, on Dec. 4, 1875.

Seven were shot of whom one died immediately; two were lynched but would have died from their wounds anyway while two more reportedly died from infections resulting from their wounds.

Campo came into existence when the brothers Luman and Silas Gaskill set up a country store in the Laguna; around which several houses and ranches were built. The Gaskills had come from Indiana; tough, long bearded frontiersmen whose courage and marksmanship was undisputed. Knowing the dangers of the mountainous border region, they built a sturdy house, two stories high, which straddled a little stream. Tra-h and debris could be swept into the water through a trap door.

Early in December, a Mexican ranch hand warned Silas that the Cruz Lopez gang had been seen in the vicinity and might want to raid the store. Calmly the Gaskills took precautions, placing six double-barreled shotguns in strategic positions and storing ammunition where it could easily be reached.

On Dec. 4, two wagons came rumbling through the little town on their way to Tecate (then called Tecate) and simultaneously, five horsemen arrived at the circle in front of the Gaskill store. Inside, Luman was talking to Jose Alvijo who worked at a nearby ranch and who seemed to be friendly.

FIVE IN GANG

The five riders were members of the Lopez gang including Lopez himself, Garcia Pancho Alveto, a notorious Los Angeles gun slinger, Fedoro Vasquez, Francisco Albitrio of Tecate and Alonzo Toma Cota. Un-known to the Gaskills, Alvijo was also a member of the gang

La Mesa Demos Meet On 'Rights'

"Dialogue—Civil Rights 1965" will be the theme of the La Mesa Democratic Club meeting which is being held today at Porter Hall in La Mesa, it was announced by Mrs. Nan Lippman program chairman. Mr. Aaron E. Oliver and Carol W. Wayman will be the main speakers.

Mrs. Oliver, who is the delegate of the Episcopal Society for Cultural and Racial Unity, will report on her trip to Mississippi where she participated in the Delta Project. She is also a member of the Department of Christian Social Relations of the San Diego Mental Health Association.

Wayman, who is head of the Citizens Interracial Committee of San Diego and a member of the American Psychological Association, will speak on the recent disturbance in Watts. The public is invited and refreshments will be served.

sent out an advance guard to find out where the Gaskills were hiding their money.

Lopez and Alveto entered the store and asked to see a coil of rope. Luman turned to the shelves to get it and, when he faced the Mexicans again, found himself staring into the drawn guns of the bandits, Alvijo included.

Gaskill dropped behind the counter for protection and guns began to bark. Luman was wounded in the lung. Alvijo who knew where the "strong box" was hidden, took it and carried it outside.

There, Silas had heard the "hots and ran toward the blacksmith shop where one of his shotguns was hidden. The bandit Vasquez saw Silas and took a shot at him, wounding him in the shoulder, but Silas reached his shotgun and fired, killing Vasquez instantly.

Luman, although seriously wounded in the store, stumbled after Lopez, Alvijo and Alveto, his gun belching fire. He critically wounded Alveto, Alvijo tried to climb on his horse but was shot by Silas who had emerged from the blacksmith shop.

REPORTER ON SCENE

Two new persons now entered the battle field, Jack Kelly a telegrapher and correspondent for San Diego newspaper, and an unidentified Frenchman, a "cow puncher" at a nearby ranch. Lopez took a shot at Kelly and the telegrapher returned the fire, but neither scored a hit, while the Frenchman was wounded in the arm. Kelley who was to be married within a few weeks ducked under the Gaskill store and jumped into the river where he stood in waist-high water for a full hour, observing the action which he later reported to his paper.

The fight continued as Silas hit Lopez' horse which went down, while the Frenchman wounded the leader of the bandits in the neck. Eventually, the four surviving bandits managed to get on their horses and gallop off. They soon realized that the severely injured Alveto would be too much of a burden to them, so they dumped him on the ground and told him to try to reach Mexico.

Back in Campo, Kelley had telegraphed his story to San Diego and a doctor as well as a coroner were on their way. A posse was quickly formed and Alvijo and Alveto both were captured. In the evening of Dec. 5, a group of citizens appeared in front of the house where the prisoners were held and demanded that the guard release the two. This was done and the prisoners were strung up from a nearby oak tree. The same rope was used for which Lopez had asked when he had first entered the Gaskill store.

DIE FROM INFECTION

Before the year was up, Lopez died from an infection in the neck caused by the Frenchman's bullet, but the Frenchman, too, died from an infection of his wound. Both Gaskills recovered.

The gun battle aroused considerable ill feeling in Mexico because of the lynching of Alvijo and Alveto and was the talk of the border region for some time to come.

While the Gaskills were happy because they had been able to save their store as well as their money—the strong box had been dropped by the fleeing bandits—it was Kelley who had come out best. Not only did he win praise from his editor for his coverage of the fight, but he was married in San Diego on Dec. 21.

Eye Disease Clinics Scheduled Sunday

If you're over 40 you may be a victim of a serious eye disease without knowing it, according to O. M. Graves M. D. Dr. Graves is president of the Ophthalmology Section of the San Diego County Medical Society which will offer a test for the disease—glaucoma, without charge Sunday.

"From two to four per cent of all persons over 40 have glaucoma and, if not detected early, it may lead to blindness," Dr. Graves said.

"The disease is insidious because it begins its attack on the vision without pain or discomfort to the victim," he said.

Dr. Graves explained that glaucoma is caused by blockage of the flow of fluid from inside the eye, resulting in pressure against the optic nerve, and eventual blindness.

"Many adults do not have periodic medical eye examinations, and as a result, many glaucoma victims lose much of their side vision before they realize what is happening," said Dr. Graves. "Another symptom is the appearance of halos around lights," he added.

The test for glaucoma is simple and painless and requires only a minute or two. Over 45 ophthalmologists, 30 opticians and 170 other volunteers will be helping with the testing procedure.

Tests will be given by ophthalmologists in six clinics from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

The clinic locations are: St. Joseph's Cathedral, 1528 Fourth Ave.; Birney Elementary

Night of the Auk At Grossmont JC

Grossmont College has chosen as its first dramatic production of the season, "Night of the Auk," a science fiction thriller by Arch Obier, to be presented Oct. 21-23 and Oct. 23-30 in the student center at 8:15 p.m.

Cast as the crew of a rocket ship returning from the initial trip to the moon after atomic war breaks out are Jim Hutton of Lakeside, Dennis McDonnell of Lemon Grove, Bill Schieven from Spring Valley, and Richard Fickett and Robert Kroll of El Cajon.

"Night of the Auk," according to Martin Gerrish, chairman of the drama department at Grossmont College, was chosen because of its timely message and interest to the college and community. "This play," said Gerrish, "goes farther than 'On the Beach' by telling us how to save ourselves."

In 1956, this reflective play had a brief run on Broadway starring Claude Rains, Wendell Corey, Dick York, Christopher Plummer, and Martin Brooks.

Admission is free to students and $1.50 to the general public.

Jr. High School To Administer Diabetes Tests

The Lemon Grove Junior High School, 7866 Lincoln Ave., has been selected as a diabetes detection center during a countywide Diabetes Detection Week set for Nov. 14-20.

Mrs. Loretta Miller, a Lemon Grove school nurse, will supervise the center. Mrs. Miller said free diabetes tests will be given in the school auditorium on Sunday, Nov. 14, from 1 p.m. to 6 p.m.

According to Mrs. Miller, more than 30 detection centers will be in operation Nov. 14-20 throughout San Diego County in a mass screening program designed to find a portion of the estimated 30,000 San Diegans who have diabetes and are not aware of it. Early detection and proper medical treatment is the only hope, Mrs. Miller said, of preventing diabetes from getting progressively worse in persons of all ages.

Diabetes ranks seventh as a cause of death by disease and third as a cause of blindness.

The free, simple tests will be conducted by the San Diego Chapter of the Diabetes Association of Southern California under the sponsorship of the San Diego County Medical Society.

Buckner Elected Prexy Of DECA In Los Angeles

Michael Buckner, Mount Miguel senior, was elected state president of DECA (Distributive Education Clubs of America) last weekend at the Los Angeles leadership conference.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Buckner of Lemon Grove, Mike campaigned actively for the presidential office. After the conference ended he remarked, "I not only gained valuable experience in business at the convention, but I also furthered my knowledge of politics beyond any horizon I have known by actively participating in them." He continued, "Our first endeavor will be the promotion of National DECA week, Nov. 7-13. The primary function of this week will be to inform the public about Distributive Education and its impact upon the nation."

DECA is a national organization for the development of future leaders in the merchandising and distribution fields. Mount Miguel organized special classes in merchandising several years ago and last year sent its DECA campus president to the national convention in Chicago. The course is structured so that the student obtains a deeper understanding of business practices and advanced knowledge in business—both in the classroom and on the job in stores and other firms in the area.

Warren C. Bellows, teacher coordinator and club advisor, said that, "This has been the best year that we've had and I would like to congratulate all 10 delegates from Mount Miguel on their conduct in carrying on the business at the convention." He went on to say further that Mount Miguel has the largest DECA Club in the state: 77 members.

Two other area students who were elected to office state are Mike Randazzo of Helix and Connie Scully of Grossmont, treasurer and parliamentarian.

Spanish Is Easy To Learn Via Speed Speech Method

The SPEED SPEECH method, which is the dream come true of William Archer, can now teach you to speak fluent Spanish in only 24 hours of purposeful study. Mr. Archer has dedicated the last thirteen years of his life to finding a way to teach people modern languages within a short period of time. This new method of learning is now being offered exclusively in this area by this newspaper.

William Archer, who created SPEED SPEECH, knows that speaking a foreign language can be very contagious within the home. Mr. Archer has devoted years to studying the way a child mimics the adults in the family, and is thoroughly convinced that if a child hears a language, he can learn to speak it. As you progress with the SPEED SPEECH course, try this simple experiment: Speak only Spanish in the home three days each week and see how much fun it is to talk in a foreign tongue. You will be equally thrilled that your children will begin expressing themselves immediately in their new language without the benefit of ven a textbook. When you turn to page No. 24 of your textbook and you will find the names of foods. Ask for them in Spanish.

The Spanish SPEED SPEECH course is available only through this newspaper. Since it is being offered as a public service to our readers, we are able to give you the Spanish course at a $6.00 savings to you. By special arrangement with the publisher this $14.95 course can be obtained for only $8.95. The Spanish course consists of two 7 1/2" 45 rpm records and a coordinated textbook, and a dictionary of necessary words with the Spanish phonetics. The student is able to see the words while his ears receive them from the records, thereby employing the only two senses that can be employed in learning.

The "Ammo for Peace" drive began as a result of Chaplain Edwin V. Bohula's request for "... help in supplying ammunition for the Marine's good-will weapon."

Chaplain Bohula, who is a battalion chaplain with the Marines in Viet Nam, has been in-
